

CDBG Non-Public Standard Operating Procedure

24 CFR 570 Eligible Activities

Non-Public Service

According to Federal Regulations, a maximum of 15% of the total funds received can be used for public service activities, the balance (65%) should be used for non-public service activities, and a maximum of 20% can be used for administrative activities. Public Service activities include: child care, job training, education programs, fair housing activities, services for seniors or homeless persons, etc. Non-public services include: new construction, acquisition of land or existing buildings, rehabilitation, installation of improvements or facilities, etc.

- Each sub recipient/agency that anticipates receiving federal funds from HUD will only do so upon meeting the qualifications listed under 24 CFR 570 for which they have or will be applying.
- All Non-Public service proposals submitted will be reviewed by a Community Development Specialist to determine if it addresses one of three CDBG National Objectives.
- Non-Public service proposals that will likely be accepted will incorporate the objective(s) of one or more of the following: benefits low to moderate income persons, aids in the prevention or elimination of slums or blight, and whether it meets a need having a particular urgency as stated in 24 CFR 570.208.
